

SUPPLEMENTAL MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING TO TELEPHONE LIFELINE CONFIDENTIAL COMPUTER MATCHING PROGRAM
MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

The parties hereto agree that this document supplements and modifies the July 26, 1994 Telephone Lifeline Confidential Computer Matching Program Memorandum of Understanding by and between New York Telephone Company ("NYT"), the New York State Department of Social Services ("DSS") and the New York City Community Development Agency ("CDA") only as follows:

1. Article II, section 3(a): In the first sentence, substitute "90 days" in place of "60 days."
2. Article II, section 3(b)(ii): In the last clause of the last sentence, substitute "five months" in place of "six months."
3. Article VIII, Section 1: Substitute the following for the provisions of this section: The Memorandum of Understanding shall continue through August 31, 1995. It shall be deemed renewed for successive periods of one year unless NYT or DSS gives written notice of non-renewal at least 90 days before the end of the then current period. CDA may withdraw from participation 90 days after giving written notice to NYT and DSS of its intent to so withdraw. NYT, including its affiliate Telesector Resources Group, Inc., shall continue to be subject to the provisions of Art. IV regarding any Recipient Information it retains, possesses or controls after termination.
4. Article VIII, Section 2: Add a period after "parties," and delete the remainder of the section.
5. Article VIII, Section 3: Substitute the following for the third sentence in the section: DSS may unilaterally terminate, or CDA may unilaterally withdraw from, this Memorandum of Understanding (a) immediately upon service of a written notice to the other parties that the confidentiality provisions (Art. IV) of this Memorandum of Understanding have been violated, or (b) in the event of other disputes or controversies between the parties, after the expiration of 45 days written notice to cure has not resulted in resolution of said dispute or controversy to the satisfaction of DSS or CDA.

In Witness Whereof, the parties hereby execute this Supplemental Memorandum of Understanding as of July 26, 1994.
